UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,	)	Case No. 2:22-cr-210 DJC

v.	)	STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED]
	)	ORDER TO MODIFY CONDITIONS OF
JULIO NEVAREZ-ERUNEZ,	)	PRETRIAL RELEASE
Defendant.	)	Judge: Hon. Allison Claire

IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED, by and between the parties, through their respective counsel, Assistant United State Attorney Emily Sauvageau, counsel for the United States, and Assistant Federal Defender Meghan D. McLoughlin, counsel for Defendant Julio Nevarez-Erunez, that Mr. Nevarez-Erunez's conditions of release be temporarily modified so that he can attend a work trip to Brewster, Washington for approximately 8–10 days, beginning September 25, 2023.

Mr. Nevarez-Erunez was released from custody onto pretrial supervision on April 26, 2023. ECF No. 70. He is currently residing and working in Oregon. The conditions of his release require him to participate in location monitoring and abide by a daily curfew to his residence from 8:00 p.m. to 6:00 a.m. See ECF No 75 at ¶¶12, 13. Since his release, for nearly five months,

1 Mr. Nevarez-Erunez has complied with all conditions, including his location monitoring and
2 curfew, and is currently employed.

3 Mr. Nevarez-Erunez now seeks permission to leave Oregon and travel to Washington for 4 a work project, and remain on site for approximately 8–10 days. During that time, because he is 5 not in his home, he will not be subject to location monitoring and he will not return to his 6 residence by his curfew time each night. As a result, he respectfully requests that his conditions
7 be modified to allow him to attend the work trip by temporarily suspending his location
8 monitoring and curfew requirements until he returns from the trip, or by October 6, 2023,
9 whichever is earlier. Given his continued compliance for over 90 days and his current 10 employment, Pretrial Services does not oppose this modification. Likewise, the government does 11 not oppose the temporary modification described herein.
12

14 In light of this, the parties request that Mr. Nevarez-Erunez's conditions of release be 15 modified, and specifically that Conditions 12 and 13 be temporarily suspended beginning
16 September 25, 2023 until October 6, 2023, or until Mr. Nevarez-Erunez returns from his trip,
17 whichever is earlier. All other previously imposed terms and conditions will remain in full force
18 and effect.

18 Special Conditions 12 and 13 will be temporarily lifted from September 25, 2023 until October
